To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that Mr. Edward Almeida is a sound designer, mixer, and creative partner on Please breathe...Lucy, a psychological thriller short film about a couple tumultuous relationship and the surrealistic downward spiral that John had to face trying to undo the past. The film will premiere at festivals worldwide in 2013. As the director of Please breathe...Lucy, I personally hired Mr. Almeida onto the film's creative team and have not been disappointed.

I would be happy to provide a reference on behalf of Mr. Almeida. Please do not hesitate to contact with any questions you may have or should you require any additional information.

Regards,

KAYS MEJRI
